Cambridge International AS and A Level Business Studies Revision Guide has been designed specifically to meet the requirements of the Cambridge syllabus.

This book is for newly qualified teachers and PGCE students of business education and economics. It covers the training standards for NQTS but goes beyond this with a focus on the subject expertise they bring into teaching.

As a result, there is little applicability internationally, even less interdisciplinary work, and at times, an outright bias against the market economy as such. The Commission Report, is even handed, tough minded, and frank in discussing how it is that social science and new social and technical forces do not always mesh. The optimism exuded is measured, but genuine. Great Expectations offers policy recommendations and scientific goals that can be serviceable not only in the United Kingdom, but in all advanced societies in which social research is a central component of economic stability and development. It is a superb reference volume enriched by original analysis and pungent, clear-headed writing. Members of the commission include: Professor David Rhind, Vice Chancellor of the City University served as Chairman of the Commission.

This work provides coverage of the new modular GCE Advanced Level business studies syllabuses as well as existing linear courses. It includes topics such as the economic environment, marketing, accounting and finance, and organisational behaviour.

Longman Practice Exam Papers offer lots of help in preparing and practising for either the mock or the actual exams. Written by experienced Examiners, they give you the opportunity to practise the sort of questions that appear, so that when you sit your exams, you will be better equipped to tackle them successfully. You'll also be able to identify areas of difficulty, so that you know where to concentrate your revision.

This revised set of resources for Cambridge IGCSE, IGCSE (9-1) and O Level Business Studies syllabuses (0450, 0986, 7115) is thoroughly updated for first examinations from 2020. This coursebook contains exam-style case studies and stimulus material from businesses around the world - ranging from a social enterprise in China to a fast food outlet in Zimbabwe. Covering each of the core curriculum areas in turn, this is a reference on school subject teaching. The authors assess the development of teaching within each subject area since the 1944 Education Act up to the year 2000. Future challenges are also explored.

Looking in detail at the strong contrasts in the provision traditionally made for 'academically' and 'vocationally' minded students, the authors discuss the differences and similarities in practice, as observed in 40 schools and colleges.

In the current economic climate, it is more important than ever that young people engage with the world of work and gain the knowledge, skills and experience they will need to prepare them for their future careers. This book provides an overarching framework for understanding all the separate parts of the work-related learning curriculum and constructs a research-based pedagogy with practical steps for students, teachers and practitioners. Work-Related Teaching and Learning deepens our understanding of work-related learning and provides an overview of the programmes and recent initiatives designed to make learning more relevant and better connected to work. Drawing on contemporary research and innovative practice, it offers guidance to support teachers and practitioners in the delivery of the work-related learning curriculum. Covering all aspects of work-related learning from enterprise education and economic well-being to careers education, work experience and the diplomas, features include:

- An overarching conceptualisation of work-related learning
- An exploration of the benefits of work-related learning
- An examination of the key issues and challenges faced
- A detailed look at how teaching and learning activities have been used in various contexts and with what effects

An assessment of the strengths and weaknesses of different curriculum models Case studies and examples of good practice Discussion questions for reflective practice This book is essential reading for current teachers and practitioners involved in work-related learning, as well as students and trainee teachers who wish to improve or develop their practice in the light of recent initiatives.
