Get our prospects to make a “yes” decision immediately ... even before our presentation begins! Pre-closing is natural. We make a final decision to go to a movie before we see the movie. We make a final decision to go to a restaurant before we see the menu. It is the same with sales presentations. Prospects decide first if they want our business or product, before they see our facts, features and benefits. Closing at the end of our presentations creates stress for us and our prospects. We hate the feeling of pushing for a final decision at the end of our presentation. Now we can confidently give our presentations without the pressure of trying to convince our prospects. Why? Because our prospects already want what we offer. Getting a “yes” decision first makes sense. Why would we even want to present our business or products unless our presentation is clear to us, but our prospect understands the world differently. Yes, our prospect understands a different language. There are four different color personalities, and each of those personalities interprets our world differently. They have their own viewpoint and their own language. They make their decisions based upon their viewpoint, and the language we use to present to them has to match their personality. When we talk their language, magic happens. Our prospects understand and appreciate what we offer them. Once we have this connection, prospecting, selling, sponsoring, and presenting are easy. Learning the other color personalities' languages is easy. We simply modify our most common phrases to match their viewpoints. If our yellow personality prospect wants to serve and help the world, then why not present our opportunity from that viewpoint? It is just that easy. In this book we will quickly learn the different personalities and how to identify them. Then, we will learn proven phrases for connecting, prospecting, selling, and sponsoring for each color personality. The reactions of our prospects will be amazing. As network marketing leaders, we want to move people to take positive actions. Using their own color language is how we will do it. this story is 100% about our prospects. That means we become instantly interesting to our prospects and they will listen to every word we say. Where do I start? What do I say? I don't want to sound like a salesman. How can I relax my prospects? When we are untrained, giving presentations can be difficult. We don't know the real questions in the minds of our prospects. We don't know what triggers a "yes" or "no" decision. Many times, we don't even know where to start. Our fascination with information holds us back. We can't see the big picture because we are drowning in facts. And, what actually is the big picture? It is simply this: Does the prospect want to join our business or not? But what would happen if we changed our entire business presentation model? First, we learn to get presentation appointments with almost 100% of the people we talk to. Next, we learn to give our entire business presentation in less than one minute. If we could do this, how do we think our prospects will feel? Thrilled! When we can give our entire business presentation in less than one minute, many good things happen. We save time, not only for ourselves, but for our prospect. That makes two people happy. Plus, this gives us the flexibility to give our presentation anywhere, at any time, in any circumstances. And finally, all the sales tension disappears from our prospects when they know our presentation will take only one minute. Learn to make your business grow with this efficient, focused business presentation technique. Fear? Sweaty palms? Don't know what to say? Afraid of how others will react? Why do we avoid setting appointments? Our self-image says to us, "Don't take a chance." Motivation alone won't fix this. Our minds will come up with excuses not to set the appointment. Our sponsor yells at us, "Face the fear, and the fear will go away." Sounds easy to say, but to do? Not as easy. Appointments are part of our business. We must fix this problem. We will have to make setting appointments enjoyable. Then, our brains will work for us instead of against us. How can we make setting appointments enjoyable? First, we will learn to make appointments a passion, something we look forward to. And second? We will learn the exact words to say to avoid rejection and to reduce tension with our prospects. Let's face it. No one wants to be a pushy salesperson. We want to be a welcome addition to other people's lives. We can do this by following certain principles such as being brief, getting to the point, making it all about our prospects, and presenting our offer as a way of improving their lives. No more fear. No more feeling guilty. Instead, let's turn our negative feelings into positive momentum to get appointments fast. We want to enjoy every moment of our business. Get more appointments now. Leadership is a learned skill. No one is a "natural-born leader." Babies aren't given a manual on how to be an adult. Adulthood is learned from others. So how will we teach eager distributors to become leaders? By showing, participating, experiencing ... and of course, sharing stories. Yes, our distributors could imitate us to become leaders, but not everyone is created the same, with the same set of skills or advantages. So there must be common lessons everyone can learn for leadership. Inside this book you will find many ways to change people's viewpoints, to change their beliefs, and to reprogram their actions. And when these three things change, the results will naturally change too. Building leaders in your organization is the best investment in financial security you can make. The return on your investment is paid over and over again. And the earnings from developing one good leader could dwarf the monthly payout of almost any retirement plan. This is the one thing we can control. - We can change our mindsets in one second. - There is no cost. It's free to do. - The world responds, giving us better results. Instead of letting our mindsets control us, here is our chance to determine our future. Our first surprise is that nature gives us a negative mindset. We have programs that fear everything. Nature wants us to survive. Surviving is good, but achieving is great. And what about others? Can they affect our mindsets? Certainly, if we let them. This book gives us the tools to take control of our minds. Why be victims when we can be victors? Not only can we use these mindset skills for our personal success, but we can also change the mindsets of others. We can put our groups on the path to more positive outcomes and growth. What is magical about changing our mindsets? Other people can detect our mindsets and will react to them. This is how we can affect the outcomes in our lives. So even before we help others change their mindsets, our personal mindsets give us a big head start toward our goals. Why wouldn't we change our mindsets? Because we don't know how. Let's learn the precise skills to make this happen. Prospects make shallow, instant judgments. We want prospects to judge in our favor. Is our first sentence good enough? Our first sentence choices will interest and engage our prospects ... or turn off their confidence in us. Do our new distributors have proven first sentences that work? Do we? Are we creating new first sentences with trained formulas? What happens when our distributors don't have effective an first sentence? They stop talking to prospects. Game over.
