A New York Times Bestseller A Wall Street Journal Bestseller A New York Times Notable Book of 2020 A New York Times Book Review Editors' Choice Shortlisted for the Financial Times and McKinsey Business Book of the Year A New Statesman Book to Read From economist Anne Case and Nobel Prize winner Angus Deaton, a groundbreaking account of how the flaws in capitalism are fatal for America's working class Deaths of despair from suicide, drug overdose, and alcoholism are rising dramatically in the United States, claiming hundreds of thousands of American lives. Anne Case and Angus Deaton explain the overwhelming surge in these deaths and shed light on the social and economic forces that are making life harder for the working class. As the college educated become healthier and wealthier, adults without a degree are literally dying from pain and despair. Case and Deaton tie the crisis to the weakening position of labor, the growing power of corporations, and a rapacious health-care sector that redistributes working-class wages into the pockets of the wealthy. This critically important book paints a troubling portrait of the American dream in decline, and provides solutions that can rein in capitalism's excesses and make it work for everyone.

Learn how to pass the New York State Correction Officer Exam. The number of candidates taking the exam has increased dramatically in recent years, reflecting the challenges of the job market. In order to succeed against this increased competition, the candidate must be prepared to tackle the unique question types found on the exam. This book contains the most up to date and accurate information to help you prepare for the Correction Officer Exam. Written using lessons learned from the latest exam updates, this manual squarely prepares the reader for all of the exam sub-areas including: Observing and recalling facts and information, applying facts and written information in a correctional setting, reading comprehension, and written expression. Acclaimed journalist Ted Conover sets a new standard for bold, in-depth reporting in this first-hand account of life inside the penal system at Sing Sing. When Ted Conover's request to shadow a recruit at the New York State Corrections Officer Academy was denied, he decided to apply for a job as a prison officer himself. The result is an unprecedented work of eyewitness journalism: the account of Conover's year-long passage into storied Sing Sing prison as a rookie guard, or "newjack." As he struggles to become a good officer, Conover angers inmates, dodges blows, and attempts, in the face of overwhelming odds, to balance decency with toughness. Through his insights into the harsh culture of prison, the grueling and demeaning working conditions of the officers, and the unexpected ways the job encroaches on his own family life, we begin to see how our burgeoning prison system brutalizes everyone connected with it. An intimate portrait of a world few readers have ever experienced, Newjack is a haunting journey into a dark undercurrent of American life.

"...Score #1 on the Test! Just Like I Did!" This book is subtitled "A Comprehensive Review of the New York States First-Line Correctional Supervisors Test" which is the title of the civil service test for the promotion of Sergeant in most NYS County Correctional Facilities. This book contains an outline of the above entitled exam - and is a comprehensive review of New York State's Minimum Standards. If you are looking for an outline for the above entitled exam and a review of New York State's Minimum Standards - Then this book is for you. Welcome to the Ultimate Correctional Sergeants Exam Guide a comprehensive review for the exam entitled "New York State's First-Line Correctional Supervisors Test." You have bought the most advanced book ever published for this promotional exam. The purpose of this book is to provide the reader with an outline of the above entitled exam as well as a powerful and comprehensive system for learning the New York State Commission of Corrections Minimum Standards. Combining the information from the test guide provided by the New York State Department of Civil Service, this guide will prove invaluable for anyone studying for the above entitled exam. This book has been carefully designed to reinforce your understanding of the laws behind the New York State Commission of Corrections Minimum Standards so that you are better equipped to take the promotional exam. This book will also help you to perform your job to the best of your ability. Let's face it - whether you like it or not, the New York State Commission of Corrections Minimum Standards are the laws of the State of New York. If you do not know these rules and guidelines, you may be in violation of the law- potentially causing yourself unnecessary liability. As a corrections professional, you owe it to yourself to know these rules inside and out. The reason that I sat down and compiled this information is because while I was studying the New York State Commission of Corrections Minimum Standards, I had a hard time reading through the boring page after page of legal terminology. So as a study guide for myself, I decided to break down the information into smaller pieces so that I could better understand the information.

The end result is this study guide! Besides being a terrific study guide for the above entitled promotional exam, this book is also an excellent guide for any person seeking a better understanding of the complex laws that govern most county correctional facilities in New York State. I hope that this book will give you the edge that you need in order to score those few extra points that could make a difference for you in your career. My motto is "Score Higher-Get Hired!" Best of luck, Eric L. Morin -Corrections Officer - Rensselaer County, NY "Score #1 on the Test! - I did- You Can Too!"

The true story of a woman's fight for her brother's life—and her own: "Essential for those interested in the U.S. justice system" (Library Journal). On September 21, 2011, Troy Anthony Davis was put to death by the State of Georgia. Davis's execution was protested by hundreds of thousands of people across the globe, and Pope Benedict XVI, Pres. Jimmy Carter, and fifty-one members of Congress all appealed for clemency. Davis's older sister, Martina, a former Army flight nurse who had served in the Gulf War, was one of Davis's strongest advocates—despite the fact that she was battling liver and metastatic breast cancer and died just weeks after her brother's death by lethal injection. This book, coauthored by Martina and writer Jen Marlowe, tells the intimate story of an ordinary man caught up in an inexorable tragedy. From his childhood in racially charged Savannah; to the confused events that led to the 1989 shooting of a police officer; to Davis's sudden arrest, conviction, and two-decade fight to prove his innocence, I Am Troy Davis takes us inside a broken legal system where life and death hang in the balance. It is also an inspiring testament to the unbreakable bond of family and the resilience of love, and reminds us that even when you reach the end of justice, voices from across the world can rise together in chorus and proclaim, "I am Troy Davis." "Martina Correia's heroic fight to save her brother's life while battling for her own serves as a powerful testament for activists." —The Nation "Should be read and cherished." —Maya Angelou, author and civil rights activist know everything that's in here. If the real people of America, the silent majority, are going to survive, they must educate themselves. That is the purpose of this book." In what the author considers a survival guide, there is explicit information on the uses and effects of drugs, ranging from pot to heroin to peanuts. There i detailed advice concerning electronics, sabotage, and surveillance, with data on everything from bugs to scramblers. There is a comprehensive chapter on natural, non-lethal, and lethal weapons, running the gamut from cattle prods to sub-machine guns to bows and arrows.

Updated to reflect recent exams, this manual provides solid test preparation for applicants taking federal, state, and local court officer exams. The authors present study tips, a diagnostic test, and four model exams typical of those currently administered. The exams come with answers to questions and self-diagnostic procedures. New in this edition is a chapter that takes into account the current trend in court systems to rely on oral interviews in the process of selecting court officers. The authors advise on ways to obtain the best score in such an interview.
