"This volume is the outgrowth of the proceedings of the ninth annual Institute for Research in Clinical Psychology ... held at the University of Kansas campus on April 3rd to 5th, 1967. These institutes were initiated by M. Erik Wright of the University of Kansas Psychology Department in the late 1950s. Their focus has been on new developments in research and theory in clinical psychology. The ninth of these institutes concerned the role and place of behavior modification techniques in clinical psychology"--preface.
