The Bible is composed of 66 books penned by 40+ people over 2,000 years. Since the Bible was penned by these people over several thousands of years, some skeptics cast suspicions that it was not integrated or true. The Bible can be proven, it is integrated and literal and authored by someone outside of our time domain. Every letter and every number was dictated by deliberate design of Elohim (God). Prophecies are not to scare you or anyone else. They are to prepare the Believer for events when they occur. To be a Christian should be a challenge. If you are not being persecuted, you are not walking closely with Yeshua (Jesus). We are told YHVH does not give us the Spirit of Fear in 2 Tim 1:7. Yeshua tells us in Luke 21:12, that before the start of the last 7 years, Daniel's 70th week or as commonly know as the Tribulation, Christians will be persecuted. Do not fear persecution, expect persecution if you are being righteous in YHVH's eyes.

The final book of the Bible, Revelation prophesies the ultimate judgement of mankind in a series of allegorical visions, grisly images and numerological predictions. According to these, empires will fall, the "Beast" will be destroyed and Christ will rule a new Jerusalem. With an introduction by Will Self.

NO ONE HAS SATIRIZED New York society quite like Dawn Powell, and in this classic novel she turns her sharp eye and stinging wit on the literary world, and "identifies every sort of publishing type with the patience of a pathologist removing organs for inspection." Frederick Olliver, an obscure historian and writer, is having an affair with the restively married, beautiful, and hugely successful playwright, Lyle Gaynor. Powell sets a see-saw in motion when Olliver is swept up by the tasteless publishing tycoon, Tyson Bricker, and his new book makes its way onto to the bestseller lists just as Lyle's Broadway career is coming apart.

This work affirms the centrality of Jesus and His coming work of retribution and reward as the keys to understanding Revelation.

The Essential Evangelical Parallel Bible enables readers to easily compare a quartet of modern translations that span the full range of approaches, from the most precise and literal to the most dynamic and reader-friendly. The New King James Version and English Standard Version permit close word-study, while the New Living Translation and The Message present the text as its earliest audiences might have experienced it. The complete texts of the four translations featured in this volume are conveniently displayed on facing pages (two translations per page), with the same set of verses on each one. The EEPB is particularly noteworthy because it is the first parallel Bible to feature the updated NLT text.

Amid the welter of writing on biblical prophecy, this important work by Kuyper challenges the thoughtful Christian to profoundest reverence for the message of the book of the Revelation.

"Though St. John the Evangelist saw many strange monsters in his vision, he saw no creature so wild as one of his own commentators." ~ G.K. Chesterton

The book of Revelation was written to do just that: reveal. But most commentaries nowadays either engage in bizarre speculations about the future, or they keep an embarrassed distance from all the apocalyptic events that the apostle John says will "shortly take place." In this commentary, Douglas Wilson provides a passage-by-passage walkthrough of the entire book, showing how John's most notorious prophecies concern the Fall of Jerusalem in A.D. 70. Explaining symbols and characters as he goes, Wilson shows from the text that not only is this book not an elaborate code, but that Revelation is not even ultimately concerned with the end of the world as we know it. Revelation is about the triumph of the Church, which always happens when the Man comes around. With over 500,000 Bible prophecy books sold, Mark Hitchcock is fast becoming one of the most popular and widely trusted voices on this topic. The Amazing Claims of Bible Prophecy is his newest release. This book takes a fascinating look at one of the most important aspects of Bible prophecy: It confirms the divine origin and complete reliability of God's Word. Only God—who is all-knowing—can tell what lies ahead with 100 percent accuracy. Readers will examine ten past prophecies and their astounding fulfillments, all of which serve as profound evidence for both unbelievers and believers that God's Word can be trusted. Readers will also explore ten future prophecies and see how today's events foreshadow the fact Earth's final hour is near. This resource will encourage believers toward a deeper confidence in the Word and equip them with a powerful defense against those who question the Bible's truth claims. One of the dogmas of humankind is that the Quran is quoted or borrowed from the Bible. This creed is established upon studies of articles of many prejudiced intellectual scholars this is the tenth book in the series Science vs. Bible vs. Quran In this series of books (1-10), it is obvious that: 1) The Bible contradicts the Sciences in many aspects. 2) The Quran preceded the sciences in many aspects. 3) The Quran is quite different from the Bible in respect to the meanings of the verses that talk about a specific topic. In the present topic of the Spider, the smart reader will answer easily this fake dogmatic question: Is the Quran quoted from the Bible? The Quran says, The female spider is the one mainly undertaking the building of the house, The spider's house, from the physical and spiritual point of view, is the weakest house of all and The weakness is in the spider's house and not the threads Now, the smart reader can easily answer this dogmatic question: Is the Quran quoted from the Bible? Is the Quran which says the above is quoted or borrowed from the Bible which says? Four things on earth are smallest on the Earth, Ants, Cones, locusts and a spider, Locusts have no king, The spider is found in kings' palaces and Whoever eats the eggs of vipers will die. I will leave the smart reader to answer that dogmatic question. In this book, you will read about: The spider in the Bible Proverbs 30:25-30 The Ants, Conies, locusts and lizard are the four smallest things The Ants, Conies, locusts and spider are the four smallest things Job 8:13-18 The hope of a hypocrite shall perish His trust shall be as a web of spiders His roots are wrapped about the stone Neither a period nor a comma will disappear from the Bible Even the smallest part of a letter in the Bible cannot be changed Jesus said: "my words will never disappear"

Excerpt from The Locusts Have No King Frederick professed immense gratification at the compliment, adding that, for his part he always enjoyed being introduced to Ephraim Beckley and considered the Beck ley amnesia in the presence of unknowns nothing short of genius.
