There are large number of books available in the public domain which talks about various remedial methods that could be followed. Also there are groups of people who talk about the benefits of yoga, mantra, yantra and allied topics, each of which has a scientific logic as is the case with the manuscripts left behind by the Rishis. As we all are aware, there are planets which by their interaction, govern our destiny. My belief, developed during the study of this science, is that destiny depends on four major things in equal proportion. These are; our previous karma, the place where we are staying, the people with whom we interact and our own efforts. These are the four parameters and within each comes the important of a large gamut of activities. There is a complex equation that is a matter of study and research which, like any other science, gets deciphered and known. I therefore believe that chart at the time of birth, coupled with the year's horoscope and the time at which the query is being asked, have to be co-related and a vector from them gives the correct analysis of the query. Similarly, as each planet is associated with a colour and the colours are in turn related to vibrations – a complex phenomenon by itself; the various mantras, colour therapy and other remedies have relevance.

Ahi is an aspiring publisher and wishes to make it big someday. When her favourite author's autobiography lands on her table – which has confessions of his heinous crimes, illegal businesses and few eminent others as his partners in crime – she doesn't know if it's real or someone's trap. It could get her a big breakthrough, but little does she know that it would turn her world upside down completely. Her morbid curiosity pulls her into the depth of a conspiracy. She finds herself in the centre of various mishaps and murders, as if someone wants to lead the way. Driven by her childhood friend Samim's encouragement, and watched over by the ever so charming ACP Rathore, she has to jeopardize her life to find the brutal truth of her past. Touching, thrilling and deeply mysterious, Sin is the New Love is the journey of a girl who stumbles upon the truth about her origin while chasing her dream.

In Hindu Gods in West Africa, Wuaku offers an analytical account of the histories, beliefs and practices of the Hindu Monastery of Africa and the Radha Govinda Temple, two of Ghana's emmerging Hindu Temples.

The village doctor is the wealthiest, and also the most important man. If the village were a puppet show, he would be the puppet-master. Everything centres round authority. Dula, the village's most sought-after bachelor, marries a woman from a village across the river. Everything centres round a clash of cultures. Pitambar, a Brahmin priest, makes his living from officiating weddings, prayers and pujas, and death ceremonies. Everything centres round finding moneymaking opportunities. RadhiNani has her ear to the ground, when it comes to these three separate paths. It takes spying on a mysterious visitor to find where the three paths dovetail into one, murky, insidious path.

The spicy sugar is an amalgamation of thoughts, moments and fantasies. The reason for choosing this as the title is, the contents of the book are not limited to a certain emotion, and it reflects the spice in the melody as well as the heat in the rain. Choice of the title called for a lot of brainstorming and self assessment. It is the result of an enduring effort. It is said that the title speaks for the book; hence this was one of the most crucial steps in this lovely journey. This book beholds a lot of emotions and gestures, so it indeed needed a title that could make justice to the same. Just as the book plays a canvas to the writer's thoughts. It is the tile that serves as the vibrant hue. Sugar is always known for its beloved sweetness, what if it comes with a pinch of spice. Thoughts that can seduce the mind, moments that can bring the heart to life, and fantasies that need not be described. This book is a treat to people who want to feel themselves all over again. It shall blossom souls and touch lives. It can bring on a smile or help you shed that long held tear. It may help you value your close ones a little more or push you to reach out to that long lost some one dear! If this book turns to be a life changer, then it's indeed the title that brought emotions more to life; Yes my dear!

After an existence of over 5000 years, the Hinduism the oldest religion on earth continues to brace the casteism in form of a monster.

Omprakash S Bone has a long-time acquaintance with the Mannewar Tribals, having researched on them in detail through census researches, a thorough perusal of their ways and customs, census references, historical and anthropological surveys. The author attempts to bridge the gap by trying to make the tribals aware of their rights and privileges, so as to bring them out of their poverty and illiteracy, ills that keep them moored in their ignorance, especially in the states of Maharashtra, M.P. and Chhattisgarh. This is a book that will appeal to lovers of history and to all those who strive to fight for tribal rights.

This poetry book focuses on the dark side and the modern social problems that are creating nuisance in the lives of the common people .

This book is rooted in Devi Maa's instruction and guidance. The true credit for writing this book only and only goes to Devi Maa herself. I only played a role of a medium or you can say a postman who was appointed to deliver her 'love letter 'that is her love and grace in form of this book for all her beloved devotees. This book shall automatically get delivered and reach every home, whom Devi Maa herself would like to send to, here 'every home means every heart'. May it open a new door for each one of you and remind you how much you are loved and of the strength that lies within you. "I became the vessel and she became the energy that flowed and poured." I was called to write through the voice of Maa Shakti (universal mother goddess), which lives in my own heart. This book is a reminder for every devotee that the divine mother and her grace is always with each one of us. Love and Grace of Maa Durga is a collection of Devi Maa's real miracles and encounters in life experienced by many of her devotees, including me; these stories of grace have been shared here to reach out and inspire readers. This book is not just a book on miracles of the supreme deity, Devi Maa. It is actually her love, grace and shakti and, while reading, you will be able to sense her energy, healing and love in your hearts; you will feel a connection with her in your subconscious. Jai Mata Di!

It gives a description of Badrinath, Kedarnath, Gangotri and Yamunetri, the four Dhamas or Sacred Places of the Himalayas.

This book is about decoding Horoscope through a philosophical background with a unique amalgamation through mythological stories, which gives us a clue as to how to atone for your sins. In this book, the author has covered all the Dhan Yogas, Veeprit Raj Yogas and Neechbhang Raj Yogas with the timing of wealth. We have the lock in the form of Luck, which represents the Ninth house of Lakshmi in the Horoscope, but sometimes we cannot find the right key to unlock the house of Luck. Because of evil deeds or sinful acts done in the past life, the native has Shrapit Dosh or curse which manifest in the present, so a lock of Past can be unlocked by finding a right Key in Present as our Past has the clue of our Present in a Horoscope. The intent of writing this book is not to claim to change someone's future but to help nurture and transform a native's future by doing karmic deeds so that natives can sail through easily in his/her life. This book is not about predictive astrology; it is about sharing the philosophy of life that one has to adapt to lead a sin-free life

This book highlights attainable spiritual virtues in modern times. To give body and force to the narrations on every topic, authentic information about experiments conducted by eminent world scientists and clairvoyants is included instead of abstract reasoning/arguments. The book will fascinate the young and the old, Indian and foreigner, Hindu and non-Hindu alike. Cultural symbols are emblems of divine and human sovereignty over temporal life. A symbol must necessarily suggest more than what it expresses. Every symbol is pragmatic like a tiny seed which proclaims its potentiality of becoming a blooming tree. A careful look at the symbols opens up a vista of knowledge and the success achieved in revealing the mysteries of Nature in Universe.

MERE PAAS...BOLLYWOOD TRIVIA HAI!The Indian cine-goer's fascination for Bollywood is unending – and then there are those who really like to get their elbows into it dum lagaa ke! Which is why this book, stuffed with super-gyaan (yes, there is a science to the movies as well!) and sprinkled with quirky illustrations is a must-have for anyone in love with or just plain confused by all that goes on in Bollywood. Among the many masaledar nuggets it features are:• The rulebook on how to plan a filmi elopement; • Fifteen jailers who terrorized prisoners (and the jailbreaks that had wardens quaking at the knees);• Colourful stories that reveal why people get drunk in the movies; • Ten on-screen detectives who had crime on their minds, even if they could never solve them; • Three ways suhaag raats unfold cough in Hindi cinema.And there's much more! From tragedy and mystery to heartbreak and victory – Bollygeek opens up the obsessive, compulsive and addictive world of Hindi cinema like never before. You don't want to miss out on this one!

We owe our existence to our mothers. A mother gives us birth, feeds us and protects us from harm. If it weren't for her it is unlikely that we would have survived. Mothers play a key role in the existence of mankind. It is a mother who imparts knowledge and values to a child. She handles the affairs of the home ensuring the welfare and prosperity of the family. Mothers love, are patient and forgiving. Sometimes they also punish. Maa The Universal Mother highlights the concept of the Mother Goddess dear to all Hindus, manifested in many forms, and connects you to the modern times to appreciate the strength of a mother in bringing harmony to our lives through devotion and compassion.

The famous JyotirLinga of MahaakaaLeshwar is situated over the bank of the sacred river Shipra. Lord Omkareshwar's temple is situated over an Island inside the river Narmadaa. On the other side of Narmada is the temple of Lord Maamaleshwar. Lord Baeidyanath's temple, situated in Deoghar. One of the old Tapovana also exists near Deoghar. This book talks in detail of all these deities, the places around them and their spiritual and scriptural significance.

Today's youth has some extremely negative connotations, which is slowly leading them to depression and anxiety, giving rise to social evils. The rapid switchover from the good old books to the addictive technology and computer games reminds of the good old days of the 90's, when people would wait at a bookstore to grab a copy of that special book before the stock was over, when the youth would play Kho-Kho and Carrom and winning that game would give the happiness that money couldn't buy. In those days, reading a short poem would give inner peace to an individual .Through this short collection of poems, random thoughts and inspirational quotes, every person in his/her young days, right from teenagers to university students, from fresh graduates to professionals, would be able to relate with themselves in some way or other, the thoughts unfolding in this book.

Rhea is a renowned psychologist, sexologist and relationship coach. While on a holiday, she meets Rohan, a famous Indian actor who chances upon her notebook and believes she is the only one who will be able to help him with his issues. Rohan has cold feet as his wedding day approaches. But is that all? He embarks on a therapeutic journey with Rhea with the support of her fiancé Siddhartha. This begins the unravelling of many childhood secrets and emotions. Will he overcome these overpowering emotions that have become a part of him? Can he rise above deep, long-term wounds and bonds? Will he go through with the marriage? Siddhartha and Rhea set some interesting relationship goals for every couple. The book elucidates how important it is to destroy the old psychology and develop a new one. A heavy and sensitive subject is presented in the simplest and most light-hearted manner possible. #NewHuman Today's mankind is a product of the culture of thousands of years. From the time we are born, we are socialized into playing traditional gender roles. Certain differences between the sexes are natural while the others are cultural and social (manmade). The book explores men and women's relationships with each other—mother-son, father-daughter, mother-daughter, father-son, brother-sister, girlfriend-boyfriend, husband-wife—and themselves. Be it any relationship, there are men and women involved. The kind of relationship we share with the same or opposite gender stems from our very first relationship with that gender, that is, with a mother and a father. And this is what the book deals with. Delving into the dynamics of these relationships, it brings forth a new definition of what it means to be a man or a woman through the characters Rhea, Siddhartha and Rohan.

Phoolbasan: Fearless, Fierce, and Unfazed Born to Jhadiram and Sumitra, in a small village in Chhattisgarh, Phoolbasan Yadav led a life of great adversity. Like several other families in the Chhuria tehsil, her family was crushed under the debilitating weight of poverty. The siblings and their parents often went hungry- affording even two meals a day was a luxury for them. Phoolbasan rose from these circumstances and became a symbol of resilience not just for her village, but for women across the country. Her story is a stunning example of how one can battle socio-economic factors and emerge victorious. For Phoolbasan, it was always clear that success and well-being cannot be achieved alone. We are stronger together. Right from the beginning, her life was littered with examples of how helping one another led to happiness for all. As a child, she was unable to access an education, as her parents could not even dream of affording the school fee, uniforms, and books and so on. In fact, her father was also opposed to her studying as she was a girl. It was only through financial help from the friendly customers who frequented her parents' tea stall, that Phoolbasan was able to receive primary education. Her spirit was recognized by those around her, and they were moved to help her. Despite excelling at school, she was not able to progress to secondary education as yet another social evil entangled her- child marriage. In fact, the financial condition of her new household was even worse. Having given birth to her first child at the age of fourteen, she was unable to feed her children. Phoolbasan took it upon herself to not only escape this cycle of poverty but to also empower other women to do the same. She began speaking to the women around her, and organized small self-help groups. Her knowledge and presence of mind led to the entire village making better spending and saving decisions. Though the women were initially opposed by the orthodox villagers, and even the panchayat, they eventually proved to everyone that they were on the right path. Phoolbasan too had to undergo domestic violence at the hands of her husband, who could not comprehend that he was married to a path breaking woman. He supported her later, once he could look beyond his prejudices. Phoolbasan and her Maa Bamleshwari Svayam Sahayta Samiti empowered many villages. They gradually expanded beyond the scope of household finances. They not only spread awareness on the importance of education for children, and bore the expenses of hundreds of poor students, but also organized classes for women who had not had access to schooling during their childhood. Amongst other things, the group held blood donation camps, cleanliness drives, anti-addiction campaigns, and a movement against open defecation. The women even outperformed the men of their village in bidding for the local bazaar. In that scenario, they were faced with physical and verbal threats, and had to rise to the occasion, proving the strength of united groups of women. This is just one example from the life of Phoobasan Yadav, a woman who refused to be held back by social norms.
